ABOUT

Playlist Plunderer 2.0

Organize your iTunes library with Playlist Plunderer 2.0, a macOS application that automatically identifies and updates metadata for each track's title, artist, album, year, and genre.
Perfect for anyone dealing with incomplete or mismatched
metadata from downloads or CD rips, it updates your library at home for you
—no need for manual editing or costly monthly subscriptions!

Key Points

* Two Scanning Modes

* Free Mode: Scans each track for 14 seconds per attempt.
* Licensed Mode: Unlocks a 5-second scan,
ideal for when you want quicker results.

* Iteration Logic for Accuracy
You can set 1, 2, or 3 "listening attempts" for each song.
More attempts increase the chance of consistent tags, helping avoid mismatches.

* Metadata Field Selector
Click "Fields" to pick which tags update: Track, Artist, Album, Genre, Year.

* One-Time Purchase
No recurring fees. Use the free mode indefinitely, or upgrade once for the faster 5-second mode.

* Intel & Apple Silicon Builds
Runs on modern macOS systems, with separate installers to suit your hardware.

* Playlist Plunderer does not guarantee a 100% accurate match for every song, Matches depend on metadata database results.
Requires internet connection to run recognition process
Scans ANY track format, NOT just mp3's!

* Internal Listening Mode
Toggle "Audio" to scan internal system sound (e.g., via BlackHole, Soundflower) to scan for results without audio playing back from the speakers

*Hover Tips
Hover over buttons for 4-second tooltips with usage hints.

* Serato & Rekordbox Users
Update/Export your updated iTunes library with clean, consistent metadata.

ITERATION LOGIC

Iteration Logic for Accuracy.
You can set 1, 2, or 3 "listening attempts" for each song.
More attempts increase the chance of consistent tags, helping avoid mismatches.

Iteration Logic
The more iterations per song the higher the accuracy

Set Iterations (1, 2, or 3)
* 1 Iteration: The app listens once. If Plunderer returns consistent info, that field (e.g., artist, album) updates in iTunes.
* 2 Iterations: The app listens at two different points in the song; consistent matches ge updated fields.
* 3 Iterations: Three listening points.If a field's info matches in at least two attempts, i updates.

MATCH NOT FOUND

For a match to be confirmed the app must consistently identify the song in the majority of iterations.
Fields that don't match consistently won't be updated.
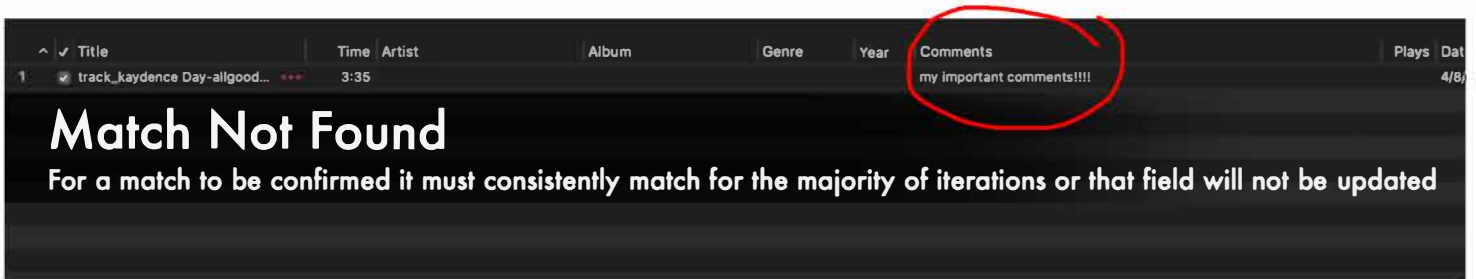

If a match is not found after multiple iterations, the Playlist Plunderer app will PRE pend a "Metadata not found" comment in the comment section, keeping whatever comments you already have intact.
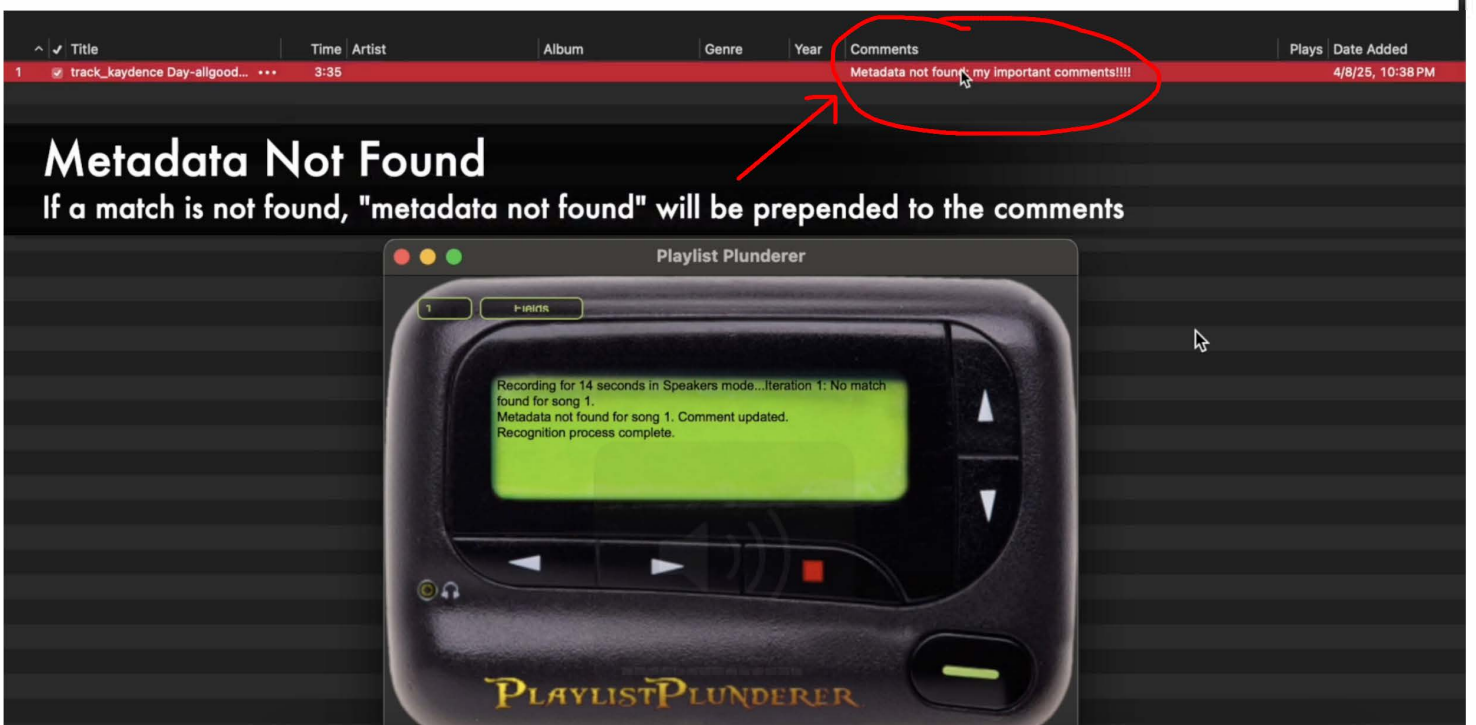

Each field; Track Title, Artist Name, Album, Genre and Year, must EACH match consistently for the majority of times (or iterations) the app was set to.
(two out of two, or both times, or if set to three iterations, it must match two out of three times).
If any field does not populate consistently for the majority of iterations, that particular field will not be updated.
If Plunderer returns, "no match found" the majority of times, then the comments will be prepended with "Metadata not found" preserving any comments you already have currently written.

DISCREPANCIES

Discrepancies are handled by a majority rule determined by the number of iterations the app is set to.
Each fields Metadata is updated in iTunes individually by the results populated by Playlist Plunderer.

Each field; Track Title, Artist Name, Album, Genre and Year, are subject to update independently, depending on how many times consistently they provide a result for that field.
If a discrepancy occurs or the field does not populate in an iteration, then that particular field will not be updated. Use this app and get your messy playlists under control!
